

PICK COMMITTEE TO FORM PAROLE PLAN

Commissioners Take Step to Obtain Legislation for This System in District.

With a view of obtaining legislation providing for an indeterminate sentence and parole system in the District, the Commissioners today appointed a committee consisting of Justice Wendell Phillips, John Joy Edson, member of the Board of Charities, E. H. Thomas, Corporation Counsel, N. H. Whitaker, superintendent of the workhouse at Occoquan, and George S. Wilson, secretary of the Board of Charities, to draft laws and recommendations on the subject. The action of the board is in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Trade, which has urged the Commissioners to direct their efforts toward obtaining an indeterminate sentence and parole law at the next session of Congress.

The adoption of the system is strongly urged by Superintendent Whitaker and endorsed by the Board of Charities. Mr. Whitaker recommends that the District code be amended so as to provide for a workhouse sentence of not less than thirty days nor more than two years, the time of release to be vested in the Commissioners, and depending upon the ability of the prisoner to maintain himself as a self-supporting and law-abiding citizen.

MEXICAN STATUS TO BE CONSIDERED

Senator Poindexter Introduces Resolution, Which Will Be Taken Up Tomorrow.

The Mexican situation will be aired in the Senate tomorrow, in connection with a resolution by Senator Poindexter calling on the President for information as to what action, diplomatic or otherwise, has been taken by this Government to protect American citizens from the disorders in Mexico.

Senator Poindexter introduced the resolution today and sought to pass it. Senator Cullom intervened and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Senator Fall gave notice he would address the Senate tomorrow on the resolution. He is familiar with conditions in Mexico and is one of those who advocates vigorous measures by this country.

PRESIDENT TO VETO WEBB BILL TODAY

Will Refuse His Approval of Liquor Measure on Ground It Is Unconstitutional.

On the ground that such a law is unconstitutional, President Taft, it was understood on good authority, has prepared a veto of the Webb interstate liquor bill, which will be sent to Congress late today.

The President referred Webb's measure to Attorney General Wickersham, and conferred with him on several occasions, regarding its constitutionality. The veto message, which it is understood, was discussed today in President Taft's last cabinet meeting, will be sent to the House and Senate before adjournment today.

PLANTATION DAYS WILL BE RECALLED

Polk Miller and Col. Tom Booker Will Head Entertainment in Odd Fellows Hall.

Bringing back to mind ante-bellum days on Virginia plantations, Polk Miller, widely known as a dialect story teller and song entertainer, and Col. Tom Booker, of Amelia county, Va., who plays the banjo as he was taught to play by a colored instructor sixty years ago, will give a performance to-night, tomorrow night, and tomorrow matinee in Odd Fellows Hall.

Old songs will be recalled to mind and such stories as only Polk Miller can tell will be related. With the Miller-Booker combination will be the Polk Miller Quartet from the Richmond tobacco factories which will sing as only tobacco factory colored boys can sing. The members of the quartet are not trained nor are their voices cultured. Polk Miller declares that as soon as one of them begins to sing otherwise than as the natural colored laborer sings, he will get rid of him, but they sing with the melody characteristic of their race and everywhere they have gone, they have been received with applause.

The old-time entertainers will be introduced by Congressman John A. Lamb of Virginia and Congressman Langley of Kentucky, both close friends of Polk Miller. A feature of the entertainment will be the appearance of ten Confederate veterans and ten Federal veterans on the stage with the entertainers.

Vesper Services to Be Held By Y. M. C. A.

Vesper services by the Young Women's Christian Association will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Eleventh and H streets northwest, Sunday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock. A special program in keeping with the spirit of the coming inauguration will be carried out. Miss Louise Holmquist, of New York, general secretary of the department of methods at the national headquarters of the Y. W. C. A., will make the principal address, the subject being "The Joy of the Great Discovery."

Miss Clark Barely Escapes in Mishap

Miss Genevieve Champ Clark, daughter of the Speaker of the House, and a special representative of the Times to meet the suffragettes, had a narrow escape from serious injury on the Bladensburg road yesterday afternoon, when an automobile in which she was riding was struck by a frightened horse.

The raincoat of the young woman was partly torn from her, and only her presence of mind prevented her from being thrown from the machine. She was frightened, but would not admit it. "I'm all right," she said. "Hurry up the automobile. I want to meet General Roanoke and her band."
